

MLG Title I Information
Focus Group/Survey Review

Parent Involvement Expenditures

Most recent survey results revealed the majority of the respondents would like handouts that relate to the following:

- Homework Help
- Ideas to improve reading and math skills at home
- Bullying
- Effective Parenting Skills
- Understanding state standards
- Test Prep tips

To meet this need, we'll need to expend funds on the following at a minimum:

- Home & School Connections Newsletters – addresses the majority of the topics above
- Resources for Camden County Collaborative Conference nights – (i.e. folders, graphs)
- Ink to print informational handouts
- Paper on which to print handouts and letters home

Can you think of any others?

Teacher Training

Teachers go through on-going training on how to build better home-school relationships. Examples of some of these trainings include:

- Value and utility of contributions of parents
- Partnering with parents and the impact on behavior
- Implementing and coordinating parent programs
- Benefits of contacting parents with positive communication
- Communicating and working with parents as equal partners
- Adding guardians to Google Classroom

Would you like to see any others?

Other Suggestions

Please feel free to share any other suggestions that you feel would enhance our school program and activities related to building our relationships with our families.